Three BIG First-time Homebuyer Mistakes to Avoid*

1. LOOKING FOR A HOME BEFORE APPLYING FOR A MORTGAGE

What to do instead: Before you fall in love with that gorgeous dream house you've been eyeing, be sure to get a preapproval. Being preapproved sends the message that you're a serious buyer whose credit and finances allow you to successfully get a loan.

2. BUYING MORE HOUSE THAN YOU CAN AFFORD

What to do instead: Focus on what monthly payment you can afford rather than the maximum loan amount you qualify for. Just because you can qualify for a $300,000 loan doesn't mean you can afford the monthly payments that come with it in addition to your other financial obligations.

3. DRAINING YOUR SAVINGS

What to do instead: Aim to have three to six months of living expenses in an emergency fund, even after you close. Paying mortgage insurance isn't ideal, but depleting your emergency or retirement savings to make a large down payment is a risk best avoided.
